Okay' well it started when I was 13 I was really a very horny hormonal child. One day when I was sleeping my dad came in the room and woke me up. He said that my mother told him he needed to check my personal area. I said okay because I was groggy from lack of sleep. And I rolled over belly up and took off my pants. I then proceded to take off my underwear and my dad started rubbing me and ...

This is a sweet little rhyme from the POV of a child whose father is in the military, on assignment overseas. The child makes a point of saying that his Daddy loves him because he's in the military, fighting to defend America from foreign attacks. The overall tenor of the story somewhat limits the target audience, but for the children of military personnel, especially those on long-term assignment away from home, this is a very appropriate storybook.
