Over 80 percent of her citizens have at least one COVID-19 vaccine, but another lethal threat has emerged. Join Washington Post Live on Thursday, July 8 at 3:30pm ET, when we host Seattle Mayor Jenny ...

The sexy, young girlfriend of Granite "G" McKay, owner of Harlem's notorious G-Spot Social Club and a ruthless drug dealer, Juicy Stanfield finds herself growing restless and burning with unrequited sexual energy, and must come up with a scheme to escape G's dangerous world, but her plans are threatened when she falls for G's own son. Original. 24,000 first printing.

Her man demanded loyalty, but her body wouldn't obey. Have you ever rolled over in the middle of the night and realized you were doing things you swore you'd never do? Sexing brothers you vowed you'd never touch? Bending backwards and stooping lower than you ever thought you'd stoop? Well if you can feel me even a little bit, then let me hit you with a story that just might blow your mind. . . . Nineteen-year-old Juicy Stanfield is the sexy young girlfriend of Granite "G" McKay, owner of Harlem's notorious G-Spot Social Club. A drug dealer with a lethal streak, he runs Harlem with an iron fist. But even the cash and the bling can't keep Juicy from getting restless, and while G fulfills her every material desire, she's burning up with unrequited sexual energy. To cheat on him would mean a death sentence; so Juicy finds pleasure in secret ways: fantasizing on crowded subways or allowing her eyes to hungrily take in the male dancers on the club's ladies night. But as Juicy's sexual cravings grow stronger, one thing becomes frighteningly clear: She's a virtual prisoner in G's dangerous world. As G begins to suspect her of playin' him, he pulls the reins he keeps on her even tighter. If she's ever to escape and get a life of her own she must find a way to start stashing away some of G's cash. But doing that under G's watchful eye is a challenge she might not live up to--especially when her appetite tempts her with the deadliest desire of all: G's very own son. . . .

"Harlem hasn't been the same since the notorious Granite 'G' McKay was brutally murdered in a back room of the G-Spot Social Club. In the aftermath, not only has G's massive cache of doe gone missing, but Juicy has skipped town with Gino...G's very own son!...Can Juicy and Gino find happiness as they try to build a new life together? Or will mayhem, murder, and the bitter wrath of the streets track them down to get what's due?"--Page [6].

She wanted to be a hip-hop star but the streets got in the way. Have you ever laid down with a man and wasn't sure if you'd ever get back up? Tossed the sheets with a bone-knocking fear that only a hard-core hustler could produce? Sexed him like your life depended on it, because in reality it did? You still with me? Then let's roll over to my house. Harlem. 145th Street. Grab a seat and brace yourself as I show you the kind of pain that street life and so-called success can bring. . . . Nineteen-year-old Candy Raye Montana, an ex-drug runner for the Gabriano crime family and a former foster child, dreams of becoming a hip-hop superstar, if only someone will discover her talents. Someone does. Mega music producer and king thug of Harlem, Junius "Hurricane" Jackson, CEO of the House of Homicide recording studio, cuts a deal and puts Candy on the stage. Suddenly she is a hot new artist on the notorious Homicide Hitz record label. Her career takes off and she blazes the charts, but it's not long before Candy realizes that the man she thought was her knight is nothing more than a cold-blooded nightmare. Caught between the music and the madness, between the dollars and the deals, Candy belongs to Hurricane--body and soul--and must endure his sadistic bedroom desires while keeping his sexual secrets hidden from the world. But Candy has some strong desires of her own that simply cannot be denied, especially when she finds herself turned on by a brilliant investment baller who just happens to be Hurricane's right-hand man. Candy longs for her freedom, but if Hurricane gets wind of her betrayal the blowback will be lethal--and not only will she risk losing her recording contract, she just might lose her life.

Fleeing the physical, sexual, and drug abuse of her Brooklyn family to seek refuge with her aunt Milena and cousin Fiyah in Harlem, Eva, a beautiful eighteen-year-old dancer and model, finds herself torn between her love for Mello, an aspiring rapper and photographer, and family loyalty. Original. 60,000 first printing.

Growing up on the meanest streets of the urban jungle, rapper Andre "Thug-A-Licious" Williams, a rising star of the NBA, will do anything to get what he wants, until he discovers the true price of success and fame. Original. 75,000 first printing.

Using her beauty in order to overcome the challenges of an abusive childhood and financial disadvantages, egomaniacal Sarita Robinson interacts with some of the hip-hop underworld's most powerful players and turns dangerously vengeful when she is abandoned by her supporters. Original. 75,000 first printing.

Prequel to G-Spot, the #1 Bestselling novel by Noire.

CHECK IT. Lamont be my government, but Hood be my name. I earned my stripes chilling up in Fat Daddy's joint, a Brownsville barbershop in the belly of Brooklyn. Some called me a street savior...others said I was just another Brownsville boy gone bad. Whatever. I brung it and I took it too. But when it was all said and done, I walked away with a lesson learned in street loyalty: ain't no need in looking over your shoulder in this game. Because your real enemies ain't aiming at your back. They lunging straight for your heart. Ya dig? Lamont "Hood" Mason is a fearless nineteen-year-old gangsta who was born and raised in the projects of Brooklyn, New York. He was an abandoned child who roamed the cold city streets and fought hard for survival. The only thing constant in his young life was the safety of a Brownsville barbershop owned by a father figure called Fat Daddy. The barbershop is where Hood comes of age, but cutting hair isn't the only thing Fat Daddy has going on. His daughter, Egypt, is the love of Hood's young life, and the one person whose dreams of a stable future can lead him off the grimy urban corners and out of the hustling life. But when Fat Daddy gets caught slippin and crosses paths with Xanbar, a notoriously brutal drug kingpin, his vices threaten to bring death down on the family Hood loves. In an effort to protect his own, Hood and his best friend and hustling partner, Dreko, take to the streets on a bloody mission that doesn't go exactly as planned. Hood returns to find his world turned upside down by a wave of sex, violence, and betrayal. No longer the starving kid on the street, he's now a man seeking vengeance and retribution, and he might be forced to choose between bending or breaking as he picks up the shattered pieces of his life, one by one.
