My Family. Gregory Nava's "My Family" is like a family dinner with everybody crowded around the table, remembering good times and bad, honoring those who went before, worrying about those still to come. It is an epic told through the eyes of one family, the Sanchez family, whose father walked north to Los Angeles from Mexico in the 1920s, and whose children include a writer, a nun, an ex-convict, a lawyer, a restaurant owner, and a boy shot dead in his prime.

The inspiration for The Durrells in Corfu, a Masterpiece production on public television: A naturalist's account of his childhood on the exotic Greek island. When the Durrells could no longer endure the gray English climate, they did what any sensible family would do: sold their house and relocated to the sun-soaked island of Corfu. As they settled into their new home, hilarious mishaps ensued as a ten-year-old Gerald Durrell pursued his interest in natural history and explored the island's fauna. Soon, toads and tortoises, bats and butterflies—as well as scorpions, geckos, ladybugs, praying mantises, octopuses, pigeons, and gulls—became a common sight in the Durrell villa. Uproarious tales of the island's animals and Durrell's fond reflections on his family bring this delightful memoir to life. Capturing the

In my class, a quarter of the children are Mixtec. When I wanted a book they could read, with photos of Mixtecs, and the Mixtec language, we had to make it. With respectful photos of parents hard at work this book shows students that their families feed everyone in America. Written in English, Spanish, and Mixteco, _I am Proud of my Family_ provides a good start for teachers wanting to talk about families, jobs, farms, food, immigration, and Mixtecs. The book also includes 2 poems by Mixtec poet Natalia Gracida Cruz, and an informational section. An audio version of the story is available by entering the title into Amazon. You can refer to mixtecoadvocate.org for more information about working with Mixtecs.
