Taking place a year and half before 9/11, Glass weaves together a tale about Greenie and Alan, a couple with one son, whose marriage is on the rocks; Walter, a sassy gay restaurateur and Greenie's best friend; and Saga, a drifting woman who loves animals and has suffered from a terrible accident.](#)

The Whole World Over by Julia Glass - Goodreads

I read Julia Glass. I first read THE WHOLE WORLD OVER when I had a small child and couldn't get big blocks of time to read. I was so frustrated that I finally stayed up most of one night just to immerse myself in this wonderful story about marriage, cooking and how we come to know ourselves.
